IS THE REPUBLICAN PARTY

The Syracuse Courier (democrat) remarks that "part of a physician's programme is to keep up bis patient's spirits. However desperate the the extent of his danger, for that, often, would kill him surely. Vice President Wilson acts on the kill him surely. Vice President Wilson acts on the same principle in doctoring the republican party, no w sick nigh unto death. He admits that it is it danger, and charges that its perils come from the miscondoct of men who have obtained high positions in it. Like a great many others that are trying to nurse the dying party into vigor again, he has his little prescription, too. He says the republican party must adopt a conciliatory policy toward the south, avoiding federal interference; also that the liberals must be conciliated. These he considers essential to saving the republican party and continuing it in power. When the Ethiopian shall change his skin, or the leopard his spots, then, but not sooner, we shall look for the republican party to try this very sensible prescription."

The Worcester (Mass.) Gazette (republican) says:—It is of course out of the question that he should criticise the course of the administration to which he belongs. The main moral to his letter is that the republicans should go slow, and this is what others beside Mr. Wilson have been toiling

The Boston Transcript (republican) proclaims that "Henry Wilson is right," and continues:-This is no time for party manipulation, discipline or trickery, but for independent manhood. or trickery, but for independent managed.
Whether the republican party, as such, can survive the blows its iriends and enemies have conspired to administer, time will demonstrate. This at least is certain. We can with thoughful courage conserve its principles and deserve its prosperity.

The Utica Heraid (republican) "quite agrees with the Vice President that the republican party is not yet dead or hopelessiy beaten," and that "comething must be done if it is to recover itself in season to elect its next candidate for the Presidence." The Saralogian (republican) heartly supportions to most, if not all, that Mr. Wilson suggests; but wants to know how the liberal republicans are to be successfully wooed back. It suggests that Mr. Wison can "do his party a great service if he will suggest some clearly defined method of doing what seems to be very desirable."

POLITICAL NOTES. The Eussio Commercial hopes that Francis B. Brewer, of Westfield, will be induced to stand as Thirty-third district, this State, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of the late Colonel A. F. Allen. There is also some talk of Senator Fenton being a candidate.

Referring to the election of Judge Christiancy as United States Senator from Michigan, the Utica Herald (republican) avers that the people of that State have achieved emancipation from a thral-dom that has disgraced their State for eighteen years, and adds that Chandler's "defeat is the triumph of that moral element of the republican party which opposed his re-election in his own State. It is a triumph for that element of the republican party all over the country. It is a triumph most opportune. Following close upon the heels of the republican disaster of last fall, it who have assumed the management of the repubruin." Senator Chandler to "go West" and become Governor of Michigan, perhaps.

The Indianapolis Sentinel says "even a pious name from that quarter (Michigan) is something to be thankinl for." There is something in a name, after all.
